

HEAD OF HISTORY
MPR/UPR + TLR 2 (£6,646)
For September 2019 or sooner

Robert May's School is seeking a dynamic and motivated Head of History for September 2019 (or sooner) to join this strong department in our successful and high achieving school.

History at Robert May's School has always attracted a high uptake at GCSE. Students go on to sixth form colleges well-equipped to study the subject at A Level and beyond. In addition to the curriculum offering, the department runs study visits to the First World War battlefields and Germany and participates in Cambridge University Archaeological digs.

The successful candidate will know and understand current syllabus and assessment developments. We seek a person who will be committed to developing outstanding teaching and learning in History, supporting colleagues in maintaining and driving up high standards.

Robert May's School is a popular, over-subscribed 11-16 Academy in a beautiful and easy-to-access part of Hampshire (close to Jct 5 of the M3). We have a consistent record of high academic achievement. Our ethos of mutual respect, hard work and pastoral care is well-known in the area.

For an application pack please contact Mrs Lisa Shackleton, HR Officer on lisa.shackleton@rmays.com or visit the school website www.rmays.org

The closing date for applications is Tuesday 27th November (noon).

Interviews are planned to take place during week commencing 3rd December 2018
