TEACHER OF ENGLISH (MPR/UPR plus potential for a TLR 2a - £2,873pa) Full time and permanent For January 2022 (or Easter or September 2022)

We are seeking to appoint an experienced and inspiring Teacher of English who is passionate about their subject and able to make a positive contribution to the learning experiences of our students. There is also the potential for there to be a TLR 2a for the right candidate.

You will be joining a highly successful and forward-thinking department in a growing school, teaching across the age and attainment range at both Key Stage 3 and 4 in an environment where students are well behaved and keen to do well.

At RMS, we are looking for a teacher who:

- Has excellent subject knowledge and strong teaching skills
- Is able to build positive relationships with all learners and is committed to raising attainment of all students
- Will work collaboratively within the English team to contribute to the success of the department
- Is willing to commit to extracurricular activities that add value to the school and local community
- Is able to respond positively and creatively to the changing expectations of the subject

In return, we can offer:

- Excellent support and a wide range of opportunities for continued professional development
- A dedicated and hardworking team who place students at the heart of everything
- Great students who are proud to be part of the school
- A well-resourced curriculum area
- The opportunity to take an active role in innovative curriculum developments

English is a leading department within the school and we are proud of our outstanding record of success. In 2019, 80% of our students achieved a Grade 4 or higher in English and 76% achieved a Grade 4 or higher in both English and Maths. Examinations were not completed in summer 2020 and 2021, however, RMS students continued to perform very well in English Language and Literature. We have high expectations of all our students and are committed to the personal and professional development of our staff.
